Feast Day of St. Ignatius July 31st

July 31st is the feast day of St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits and patron Saint of retreats, who passed away 460 years ago on this day in the year 1556. Born in 1491, Ignatius was a different kind of saint. As the noted Jesuit historian Fr. John O'Malley, SJ, observed, "Ignatius redefined the traditional basis of saintliness," which usually involved a degree of unworldliness. In contrast, Fr. O'Malley refers to Ignatius as a "worldly saint." Ignatius made sure that the early Jesuits were spending most of their time in relatively secular spaces such as classrooms — teaching less directly about the Bible and Church doctrine than about literature and the ancient classics. He sent letters to his missionaries asking that they write back not just about their ministries, but also about the local customs, the plants and wild life — "anything that seems extraordinary." Most of all, Ignatius wanted Jesuits to go out and "find God in all things." (Jesuits.org)

Parish Pastoral Council Election Results

Congratulations to Christopher Hale (second term), Margaret Miller, and Ellen Touns on their election to the Parish Pastoral Council. They will serve three year terms, starting September 1. Thank you for your willingness to serve. Many thanks to all of the candidates and to those parishioners who participated in the election.

Holy Trinity wishes to express its sincere gratitude to those members of the Council whose terms expire August 31st, and who will be leaving this service: Jennifer Gagnon, Constance Herron, Ned Hogan, and Paul Maco. Thank you for your service!

Christopher Hale; Margaret Miller; Ellen Touns

Let Us Pray...

As we feel our hearts break with sadness, we remain in solidarity with all of the individuals who have been affected by the violence in Nice, France, Orlando, Minnesota, Baton Rouge, Dallas, may we be comforted by God and ponder these words, "I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will heal you." (Isaiah 38:5)

MISSION STATEMENT

Holy Trinity is a Catholic parish sponsored by the Society of Jesus. We share the Society's mission to serve the faith and to promote justice. As disciples of Christ, we seek to be transformed by the Holy Spirit through our celebration of Eucharist and our practice of Ignatian spirituality into a welcoming and prayerful community that shares God's life and love with each other and the world.

From the Pastor's Desk

There is something about the word "pilgrim" that conjures up warm memories and inspired meanings. As a Jesuit I have, over the years, been blessed to have made a half dozen pilgrimages to near and distant lands. Some years ago, while working at Loyola University of Chicago, I attended a fascinating exhibit at the University's Museum of Art titled "Pilgrimage and Faith: Buddhism, Christianity, and Islam." *

The exhibit strengthened my sense that all the major religions incorporate pilgrimages into their religious identity.

It was with enthusiastic curiosity that I joined several dozen parishioners at the monthly Sunday Dinner of the of Trinity Adult Community to listen to one of our parishioners, Kevin Barquinero, describe the pilgrimage he made this past May along the "El Camino." El Camino is a medieval road that stretches more than 500 miles from the French Pyrenees to the shrine of St. James in Santiago, Spain. With engaging humor Kevin recounted his pilgrimage. He spoke eloquently of the physical challenges of his five week walk and also shared a plethora of joyful encounters. He especially noted how he met a host of fellow pilgrims, and by doing so, he sensed the Presence of God along the way. Walking the El Camino, despite its arduous challenges, has a way of revealing such God encounters, as several other parishioners and veteran El Camino pilgrims attested to that evening.

Other members of Holy Trinity have recently engaged on similar pilgrimages. Some have traveled to Fatima and Lourdes, while others have visited Rome. This past April one couple from the parish, Michael and Linda Wiessler-Hughes, journeyed to Jerusalem. They were led by Fr. Brendan Lally, S.J., my former rector at Saint Joseph's University. He had guided me on a similar pilgrimage four years ago. Upon their return I invited Mike and Linda, along with Kevin, to share some of their pilgrimage graces at a weekday 5:30 Mass. As Mike and Linda recounted their grace-filled experiences on the Mount where Jesus proclaimed the Beatitudes, I smiled in recognition that I had too had similar moments of grace.

As the pastor of our Jesuit parish, I foresee hearing more grace-filled stories from other parishioners who have encountered God while on a pilgrimage. How appropriate it will be to hear such stories, for no less a personage than St. Ignatius of Loyola, whose feast we celebrate on July 31st, called himself "The Pilgrim."

PRAYER REQUESTS

To add a name to these prayer lists, contact Rose Mary Padberg at: rpadberg@trinity.org. You must be an immediate relative of the one to be remembered, or have express permission in order to add a name to these lists. The names on this prayer list will be mentioned aloud at Sunday Mass during the General Intercessions and will be published in the parish eLetter and bulletin.

We also invite parishioners to write the name of deceased loved ones in the Book of the Dead which is kept in the back of the chapel. The parish community remembers these persons each time we gather for Eucharist.

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY

ISJI Committee Is Seeking New Members

The Mission of the ISJI Committee as written in the Parish Pastoral Council By-Laws is: to foster Ignatian spirituality and identity within Holy Trinity and to educate parishioners and staff on Ignatian principles, Jesuit traditions, and what it means to be a Jesuit parish.

The responsibilities of the Committee are identified further as: Advise and assist the Pastoral Associate for Ignatian Spirituality in the promotion, coordination, implementation, and evaluation of the practice of Ignatian spirituality in the parish. Report to the Parish Pastoral Council parish activities that support the priorities of the Society of Jesus and mission plan of the Maryland Province.

ISJI Committee Members.

- Attend monthly 7:30 am meetings on the third Wednesday of each month from September - May. Engage with parishioners to "listen" to what parishioners are seeking from the ministry of Ignatian spirituality.
- Desire to grow in their practice and understanding of Ignatian spirituality.
- Practice intentionally Ignatian principles at our meetings.
- Participate in activities sponsored by ISJI outside of monthly meetings.
- Serve for a three year term.

If you are interested in serving on the committee, please submit a one page (maximum) reflection that addresses the following questions: What 'attracts' you to serve on the ISJI committee? What, if any, experience have you had with Ignatian spirituality either at Holy Trinity or elsewhere? What do you hope to give and receive by being a member of the committee? Please email your submission to Martina O'Shea (moshea@trinity.org) by August 24.

The summertime offers many people an occasion for rest. It's also a favorable time to take care of our human relationships. -Pope Francis July 4, 2016

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Traveling This Summer?

If in your adventures you collect lots of small, travel sized toiletries, please bring them to the Parish Center. We will donate them to Georgetown Ministry Center, a day center for homeless men and women that provides, among other services, showers. You may drop toiletries off in the box next to the reception desk in the parish center. Thank you!

Washington Jesuit Academy Open

The WJA open will take place on Friday, Sept. 16 at Falls Road Golf Course - the day before the 2016 Gridiron Classic between Gonzaga and Georgetown Prep. Both events spotlight the mission and work of the Washington Jesuit Academy.

Take the day off on Friday, join the fun, and support Washington Jesuit Academy. Information: <http://wjaopen.splashthat.com>.

Volunteer to Assist 8th Graders

San Miguel School, a Christian Brothers school located in DC, serves at risk, low-income boys, mostly from Latin America. Almost 100 percent of the boys qualify for free or reduced lunches. The school has a specific need for adults who could work once a week during the fall semester with its eighth graders as they prepare personal essays for their high school application. Several Holy Trinity parishioners assisted last year and enjoyed the experience. If you would like to join them in this short-term project, please contact Kate Tromble at (202) 903-2809 or ktromble@trinity.org.

FAITH FORMATION/ RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education Parent Survey

Please help us build a stronger RE program for your children by completing a short survey about your child/children's experience last year. Your feedback will help us as we design programs and curriculum ideas for the coming year. You may find the survey at : https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Year-End_RE15-16.

The survey closes on July 31st. We look forward to hearing from you. Thank you!

First Reconciliation & First Eucharist

The registration deadline for sacramental preparation and celebration for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist is August 1. If you have questions please see the website www.trinity.org or contact REAdmin@trinity.org.

DEVELOPMENT

Parish Pledge Update

We are grateful for those who have already supported the 2016 Parish Pledge. The Parish Pledge is a budgeted goal that supports the various ministries and educational programs that our parish is called to provide. To date, we have reached 85% of our budgeted goal of $3 Million. If you have not yet made your pledge, we ask that you please do so very soon. Every pledge makes a difference in helping us reach this important goal. Pledges may be made in various ways: Online at www.trinity.org / pick up a brochure in the back of the church / contact Diane Favret or Dena Wilson in the Development Office at dfavret@trinity.org / 202.903.2801 or dwilson@trinity.org / 202.903.2827.

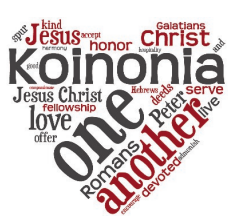

Capital Campaign Ends August 31st

Goal: $12.5 Million
Received to Date: $11,532,859
Total Donors: 700

The Holy Trinity Parish and School Community is very grateful to the 700 Donors who have made a contribution to the Capital Campaign. With only weeks to go, it is our sincere hope that you will join us and become a part of this exciting endeavor for Holy Trinity. For additional information about the Capital Campaign, please email Diane Favret, Development Director, at dfavret@trinity.org or by phone: 202.903.2801.
