Will You Add Your Name to a Letter Welcoming Pope Francis' Climate Change Message and U.S. Visit?

Pope Francis plans to mark two historic milestones this year: issuing a rare "encyclical" (a letter of guidance to the whole church) – the first to focus primarily on climate change and human responsibility for the environment, and visiting the United States and addressing a joint session of Congress – the first Pope ever to do so.

Please consider being part of these historic events by joining in a letter welcoming Pope Francis and his leadership on climate change.

To add your name to the letter, see www.honoringthefuture.org/papal/. Visit www.honoringthefuture.org to learn more.

Charles Huber to be Ordained as a Deacon

Cardinal Donald Wuerl has approved Charles Huber, a Holy Trinity parishioner, for ordination to the permanent diaconate for the Archdiocese of Washington. Charles will be ordained on June 27, at 9:30am at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Charles recently completed a four-year formation program. Jean Plummer, Charles' wife, accompanied him throughout the formation program and participated actively in his training.

Charles has been an HT parishioner since the age of four. He says that his experience at Holy Trinity has had a major positive effect on his formation, both personally and vocationally.

We congratulate Charles and Jean heartily!

Parish Council Elections Begin Today!

Following all Masses, members of the Parish Council will be in the back of the church to assist parishioners. Printed copies of the candidate's statements as well as ballots will also be available.

Candidate statements and online voting are also available at www.trinity.org for those parishioners who would prefer to vote online.

MISSION STATEMENT

Holy Trinity is a Catholic parish sponsored by the Society of Jesus. We share the Society's mission to serve the faith and to promote justice. As disciples of Christ, we seek to be transformed by the Holy Spirit through our celebration of Eucharist and our practice of Ignatian spirituality into a welcoming and prayerful community that shares God's life and love with each other and the world.

From the Pastor's Desk

May is the month for weddings and graduations, and we at Holy Trinity have seen our share of both over the last four weeks.

The eighth graders in our parish school concluded their school year with a graduation ceremony on Thursday, May 21. Speaking to the assembled graduates and their families, Charlie Hennessy, the principal, said that Holy Trinity School, like all Jesuit schools, is committed to the education of the whole person -- mind, body, and spirit. Citing a Jesuit publication that sets out some of what is distinctive about a Jesuit education, Charlie ticked off the five qualities one hopes to see in each graduate of our Jesuit schools: open to growth, intellectually competent, religious, loving, and committed to doing justice.

Not coincidentally, these are also characteristics we hope to see in each Holy Trinity parishioner.

Open to Growth -- Like the graduates of a Jesuit school, we take responsibility for our own growth. We look for opportunities to stretch our minds and our imaginations. We engage freely with one another, including with those who think differently from us. We are aware of our gifts, but we are equally aware of our limits, and we are as ready to learn from another as we are to share what we know with that other. We are always open to the magis, that is, what is for the greater good. We are not threatened by honest self-assessment, even if that self-assessment leads us to change our habitual way of doing things.

Intellectually Competent -- Our students have gained substantive knowledge in many areas, have mastered logical skills and critical thinking, have grown in understanding, and are intellectually curious. Our parishioners have also attained these qualities. We are reflective. We want to move from opinions based on "gut feeling" or what is comfortable and familiar to opinions based on knowledge and careful reasoning.

Religious -- A graduate of a Jesuit school has gained significant knowledge of Catholic traditions, teaching, and practice, as well as a basic knowledge and appreciation of the beliefs and practices of other religious groups. He or she has developed the capacity and desire to engage more fully with his or her religious community. The rest of us also engage with our parish community in meaningful and public ways. We worship with one another at Sunday Eucharist as often as possible; we participate in parish ministries; and we contribute financially to the support of the community according to our means. We are always looking for ways to integrate our faith with our daily life.

Loving -- Like the graduates of Jesuit schools, we parishioners have moved beyond self-centeredness into healthy, mutual relationships with others. We recognize that we are at our best when we are in community with others, so we easily and respectfully engage with one another. We share what we have received as gift from God with one another, and we support and build up one another. We are becoming "men and women for others."

Committed to Doing Justice -- Like our graduates, we parishioners have learned and understand Catholic social teaching, and we see its foundation in the way of Jesus. We seek the common good, taking concrete measures to assure that all have what they need to flourish. We do more than give alms; we work for justice.

No wonder our parishioners look very much like our graduates. We are all informed and animated not only by the Gospel of Jesus, but also more specifically by the spirituality and world-view of Ignatius.

-Fr. Mark

Mary, Undoer of Knots Pray for Us

*Through your grace, your intercession, and your example deliver us from all evil, and untie the knots
that prevent us from being united with God,
so that we, free from sin and error,
may find him in all things,
may have our hearts placed in him and may serve him always in our brothers and sisters. Amen.*

Prayer written by Pope Francis.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Holy Trinity Joins Other Jesuit Parishes in Bread for the World's Offering of Letters: June 7th

Bread for the World's Offering of Letters aims to realize a world in which all of God's children are fed. Our goal is to create political will by writing our policy makers and urging them to create pathways out of hunger and poverty.

Join fellow parishioners as well as parishioners from St. Ignatius in Baltimore, St. Charles in Woonsocket, Mount Carmel Staten Island, St. Raphael in Raleigh, and St. Anthony Oceanside on Sunday, June 7th as we turn our faith into action by writing letters to our members of Congress.

For more information on this year's Offering of Letters, go to www.bread.org. If you would like to join in delivering the letters to our Members of Congress on June 9th, contact Kate Tromble (ktromble@trinity.org).

Volunteer to Assist 8th Graders

San Miguel School, a Christian Brothers school located in DC, serves at risk boys, mostly from Latin America. Almost 100 percent of the boys qualify for free or reduced lunches. The school has a specific need for adults who could coach fall semester eighth graders as they prepare personal essays for their high school application. Several Holy Trinity parishioners are already committed to assisting. If you would like to join them in this short-term project, please contact Kate Tromble at (202) 903-2809 or ktromble@trinity.org.

FAITH FORMATION/ RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Baptism Preparation

The next Baptism Preparation session will be held Monday, June 8th, 2015 at 7:00pm in McKenna. Registration forms can be found on our website.
