Holy Trinity Is Home

By David Pennington

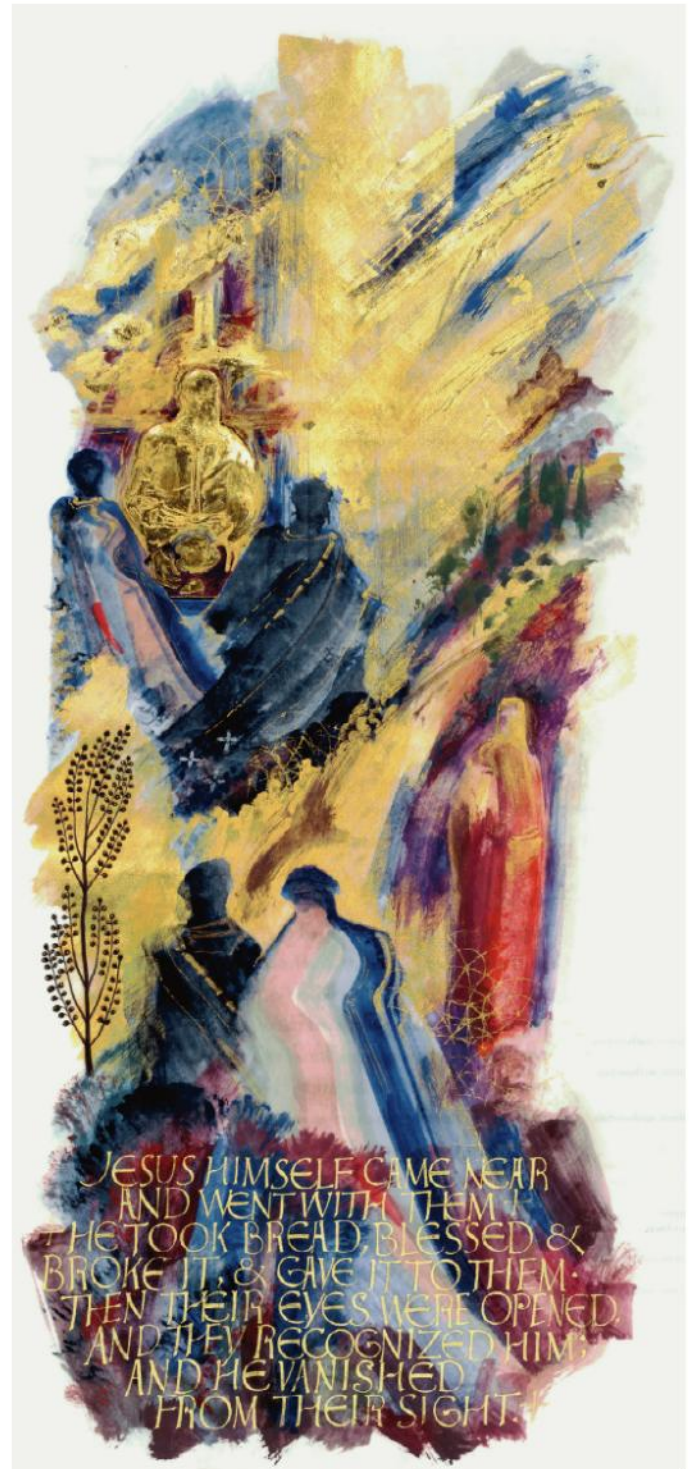

"The two recounted what had happened along the way, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread." (Luke 24: 35)

An image from the St. John's Bible hangs above my desk of the post-Resurrection account of Emmaus. (The same image can be found in our own, large Book of Gospels we use at Mass donated by Linda Arnold in memory of George.) It's always been one of my favorite passages in the Gospels — two crestfallen disciples on the journey, Jesus, unrecognized, in their midst, the beginnings of fellowship and community, shared meal, expressed hopes and dreams, and insight which comes from the ordinary telling of familiar story and the breaking of the bread. It's a liturgist's dream and it shows us what our communal, Christian life looks like.

I have left my position at Holy Trinity effective July 30 in order to pursue an advanced degree in social work. I'll go back to my (two-time, soon to be three-time) alma mater, Catholic University, to finish it. Some of you have told me that you're sad I'm "leaving," but there is no leaving. Holy Trinity is very much my home, so you're stuck with me.

I want to thank you for these last eight years. They have been a time of deep joy and great fulfillment because of the people who constitute this wonderful parish. I have been humbled over and over again by the ways that you have shared your lives with me — the births, baptisms, confirmations, and first eucharists with you and your children and grandchildren, your journeys in relationships or marriage, and the times when we commended your dead back to the God who creates us and gifts us to one another in love.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

It's that time of year again — by the time you read this, I will be on my way to begin my annual retreat from August 9-15 at the Jesuit Spiritual Center in Wernersville, PA. This year will have special significance as it not only comes during the Ignatian Year (May 20, 2021 - July 31, 2022), but it will also be the last retreat given at the Jesuit Spiritual Center.

Since 1930 when the Society of Jesus opened a novitiate on top of a hill in this rural town located not far from Amish country, hundreds of Jesuits and thousands of lay men and women have found a spiritual home there as they experienced prayerfully the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius on the spacious and sacred grounds. Sadly due to the mounting costs in maintaining the expansive building on the center's 250 acres, our Jesuit Province leaders have found it necessary to sell it. Our Jesuit cemetery, containing the remains of Jesuits, many of whom once served here at Holy Trinity, will not be moved.

As you may imagine, the sale of these sacred grounds will be a significant personal loss for my fellow Jesuits and me. Inside and outside, the place is filled with meaningful memories that date as far back as August 1964 when my older brother Fran entered the Jesuits. Then and there I sensed the Holy Spirit drawing me to this sacred place and so, as a young discerning man, I made several retreats there before deciding in 1975 to return to Wernersville and become a Jesuit novice.

Two years later on August 27, 1977 I pronounced my solemn Jesuit vows there and 12 years later I spent my first two full years of ordained ministry there. At that time I served as a member of the center's staff by guiding retreatants on eight-day and 30-day Ignatian retreats. What a grace it was to listen and learn how God's caring presence was revealed.

Over my 46 years as a Jesuit, in the countless retreats I have given or participated in at Wernersville, I came to recognize that one of the spiritual dynamisms of the Spiritual Exercises is that God comes to where a person is. This is one of the Ignatian principles through which I have sought to help directees and retreatants to recognize and name where they are in their relationship with God, self and others.

This coming week as I enter my last retreat in the Wernersville's sacred environment, I know I will do so with some sorrow, but also with a greater sense of gratitude in realizing that the Spirit of our God has guided me from Wernersville to the sacred place and the grace-filled people of Holy Trinity where I have found a new spiritual home.

Those who want to learn more about the possibility of becoming Catholic are welcome to come to the Inquiry meetings held every Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Faber Room, Holy Trinity Parish Center. Please contact Anne Koester at akoester@trinity.org or (202) 903-2825. Holy Trinity also offers RCIA adapted for children and youth who are not Baptized (ages 7 through high school). Please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann at akaufmann@trinity.org (202) 903-2846 for more information.

LGBTQIA+ MINISTRY

Holy Trinity's commitment to accompany one another in Christ invites us to be more deeply aware of the diversity of our community and more welcoming to those who are marginalized by society or the Church. Our lay-led ministry embraces individuals who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning/queer, intersex, asexual and their families and friends. More information and upcoming meetings can be found at www.trinity.org/lgbtqia or by emailing LGBTQIA@trinity.org.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL (PPC)

PPC members share leadership responsibility with our pastor. As advisors to the pastor, PPC members assist the pastor in discerning, articulating and communicating to other parishioners the identity and mission of the parish, and they assist the pastor in assuring fidelity to that identity and mission. Holy Trinity Is Home, continued from page 1

I have been humbled by your sharing your joys and loves, your family struggles and triumphs, your laughter and friendship, and your frustrations, anger, and pain at our Church which is obviously and very much still in formation and in need of change. I have been humbled to walk with you as you discover the riches God affords us in the liturgy, the ways that symbols and gifts of nature communicate to us who God is and how we participate in Christ's life. And the music we share and the noise of our prayer together has been one of the most powerful signs to me of God's presence in this community that impels us toward justice, reform, and progress, both in our nation and in our Church.

Emmaus has long been one of my favorite Gospels because of those Eucharistic overtones — the hearts that burn when story is shared and the communion garnered when bread is broken. Today, I give thanks for the journey that Emmaus images. It's an image of two, lost disciples wandering away from disillusionment and toward something greater, destination unknown. I am recalling with gratitude the times that we have been on this journey together — after all, it's on the journey that we encounter Christ with one another. And for me, this journey has been a wonderful one. Thank you. •

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Indoor Mask Requirements

Last weekend, DC reinstated the indoor mask requirements for all persons over the age of 2, regardless of vaccination status. This means all parishioners and visitors to Holy Trinity are required to wear a face mask upon entrance to the church and during the liturgy, or when entering the parish center. For the time being there are no capacity restrictions, but we will share any updates if that guidance changes. Thank you for your cooperation in protecting all members of our community.

The Judith Brusseau Faith Formation Fund

Judith Brusseau retired on August 6 as our Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation & Religious Education. To-date, as our "Thank You" to Judith for her 20 years of ministry, and to continue her legacy into the future, we have raised about $15,000 for the Judith Brusseau Faith Formation Fund to support Religious Education and to train more catechists for Shepherd's Flock, our RE program for children with special needs that Judith began.

It's not too late to join those who have already given! To offer your donation in honor of Judith, join our peer-to-peer fundraising platform: Community of Giving at www.trinity.org/judith-brusseau-faith-formation-fund. Raising money among your family and friends is a great way to give thanks for the blessings of Judith's work that have touched your family and it will benefit our RE children now and into the future.

You may also give by:
