PARISHIONERS FEED THE MARGINALIZED AT SATURDAY AND SUNDAY SUPPERS

By Diana Villiers Negroponte

As an outgrowth of the enthusiastic support for the Winter Shelter in McKenna Hall and recognizing the need for food and shelter, our weekend suppers began on November 9, 2013. Mike Conway and Judith Keating had listened to Rev. John Graham at Grace Episcopal Church who hosted a lunch service for those living on the streets of Georgetown. The start of winter weather galvanized them and other Holy Trinity volunteers to think about serving all year round a Saturday and Sunday supper.

This service would demand a lot in volunteer time and funding, but the pastors of Mt Zion's United Methodist Church (the first African American congregation in Washington) and Georgetown Presbyterian joined us joyfully. Over the years, five more churches in the Georgetown area — Jerusalem Baptist, Christ Church, Georgetown Lutheran, Dumbarton United Methodist and St. John's Episcopal — found the same joy in serving the marginalized a hot, sit-down weekend meal. This has become an ecumenical service, joining the pastors and parishioners of all these churches in common commitment to serve the poorest among us.

Early on I joined other volunteers as they cooked nutritious hot meals in their own kitchens and brought them to the assigned church. Mary Tschudy and Siga Rastonis were determined to decorate each table with the flowers of the season: from Valentine's day through the Christmas season, we set up white table clothes and seasonal decorative flowers. Accompanied by some recorded dinner jazz, our dining room for 70 - 90 people always looked ready for celebration.

Yes, with countless volunteers from Holy Trinity, we celebrated. Youth carried out their necessary service hours. Members of the parish caught this particular service bug and played leadership roles in managing the Saturday supper. Others of us, who had begun volunteering when we could lift tables and chairs, found that age required that we slow down and spend more time talking with our guests.

They are our guests: we know their names, we know their

LIVING OUR MISSION: ACCOMPANY ONE ANOTHER IN CHRIST

By Dan Kerns

Dear Friends,

With the discussion this week on the climate, we are invited by Fr Gillespie to consider a climate of another type, less global and more immediate. That is the climate of Holy Trinity, as he provides us with an assessment of the health of the parish. By all accounts, the health of the parish, the school, and our pastoral ministries is superb as we emerge from a challenging year and a half.

It almost seems as a trite understatement these days to talk about the impact and the challenges of the past 20 months. COVID-19 has influenced — and continues to influence — our lives personally and the institutions we are part of in ways that are, on one hand, small and inconsequential, and, in other ways, profound.

We have all dealt with social distancing, masks, and mandates — with uncertainties that affect both our health and our finances. Some of us have dealt with significant challenges to our own health and even the loss of loved ones. But as a community of faith, this fall has given us some reason for optimism and hope for the return to what we remember as normal and familiar. This is the message that Fr. Gillespie offers in his report to the parish this weekend.

While personal challenges have been real, the impact on our parish has also been significant. The quarantines and restriction on in-person Mass attendance for a number of months disrupted patterns of worship and created financial challenges. But both the parish and Holy Trinity School took steps to ensure the pastoral and educational needs of the community were met in a creative and innovative fashion. We learned new ways of doing things that broaden the parish's reach and some of these will remain.

As Chair of the Development and a member of the Finance Committees and through service on a small strategic group Father has assembled, I have been impressed with the immense generosity of the community. You responded in the early days of the pandemic with your assistance with the Health & Safety Fund and through your continued support of the Parish Pledge. That, along with an assessment of costs and expenses, as well as the use of some available government funding, puts Holy Trinity in a strong position moving forward.

While much has improved, we are still not back to one hundred percent. Mass attendance is still not back to pre-COVID levels, and this has both pastoral and practical Implications. Offertory collections, a major source of parish revenue, have not rebounded. We look to see both numbers increase in the next few months.

There is an old adage that messages like these are seen as “preaching to the choir.” The fact that you are reading this and will hear Father's message this weekend is a sign of your loyalty and support. So let me thank you for that, while at the same time ask you to encourage others to return to Holy Trinity and to continue your generous support. Congratulations and thanks also to the parish and school staff for their stewardship of resources and the creative way that they have dealt with the challenges of the past 20 months.

-Dan Kerns

Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola – An Online Information Session

November 13 and January 8, 2022, 11:00am

"Discernment is not only necessary when serious problems have to be solved, it is an instrument of struggle to follow the Lord better day by day and hour by hour." -jesuits.org

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola are one way in our Catholic tradition to come to love as God loves. Throughout the 8-9 month retreat, made in daily life, the retreatant can grow in self-knowledge, deepen their intimacy with Jesus, and grow in their practice of discernment of spirits. Through this potentially life-changing journey, the woman or man becomes spiritually freer to respond generously and wholeheartedly to God's invitations to love. Join us for an hour conversation about this gift that God gave the church through St. Ignatius. Contact Martina O'Shea moshea@trinity.org for the link to the online session.

Ignatian Pilgrimage to Spain and Italy

Fr. Gillespie will be leading a group of parishioners and friends on a pilgrimage tracing the steps of St. Ignatius of Loyola from March 20-29, 2022. In collaboration with Illume Tours, you will experience the transformative power of travel with prayer during the Ignatian Year. Visit trinity.org/pilgrimage for information and registration. Space will be limited and deposits are due by November 20. Fr. Gillespie will meet with those interested on November 14 after the 9:00am and 11:30am Masses in the Parish Center Library.

Movie Moments of Grace: Pride

November 12, 7:30pm, Zoom

Based on a true story, the title "Pride" takes on a dual meaning: it includes the adoption of the word by the gay community for an annual parade, and extends to the pride a group of Welsh miners on strike take in themselves and their community. An unlikely partnership of convenience will bring these two groups together in an expression of mutual solidarity. Watch ahead of time – see the streaming options and trailer at trinity.org/lmmog. RSVP to htmmog@gmail.com by 10:00pm on November 11 to receive the Zoom link.

SERVE

Thanksgiving Food Drive

Thanks to your generosity last year and the looming turkey shortage, we have decided to collect monetary donations only. We will purchase the grocery items in advance, and the 8th graders will pack the bags as a service project. We hope to provide 250 meals to Fr. McKenna Center, Hope and a Home, Housing Up and our Migrant family members. Please consider a donation of $40 to the Thanksgiving Food Drive (please indicate #187 in your check memo or donate online).

Open Slots: Groceries for Individuals and Families

Please consider signing up to bring a gift card, food or other miscellaneous item. Items may be dropped off at Holy Trinity by 10:00am for distribution on Wednesdays. We do have freezer and refrigerator options for advance drop-off in McKenna Kitchen. These donations support two large families of six and individuals who are part of our Migrant Team: signupgenius.com/go/2021support.

Volunteers Needed for Faith Formation

We are still in need of catechists for Religious Education and RCIA Adapted for Children and facilitators for Youth Ministry and Baptism Preparation classes. If you are interested in helping in any of these areas, please contact Anne Marie Kaufmann at akaufmann@trinity.org.

problems. Our name tags indicate our Christian names, and calls across K Street and Pennsylvania Avenue from a supper guest proves that our friendship extends beyond the weekend. Over the past eight years we have lost friends to ill health, death or movement away from D.C. If they return, they are welcomed with open arms.

We adapted according to season, but the pandemic presented an enormous challenge. How were we to offer hot food to guests who could not enter the church halls? Churches whose Sunday services were officiated through Zoom now faced the dilemma of how to continue their weekend meal service. We debated at length the alternatives and decided to feed our guests outside the church halls. In sweltering summer heat and freezing rain, we have not stopped engaging our guests and feeding them. Wonderful volunteers bring hot, crispy fried chicken and hot casseroles. Ingenuity enabled us to continue offering piping hot Haitian coffee, chocolate and tea. Otherwise, our meal packs offer a variety of sandwiches, fruit, a vegetable, a snack and a dessert. After eight years of weekly suppers, we and our sister churches continue with broad smiles to serve our guests. ✨

Thank you for celebrating the 8th Anniversary of the Weekend Meals for the Marginalized! On behalf of all of the volunteers, thank you for your pledges to the Social Justice Ministry and for your direct donations to the weekend meals. With your help, our hospitality continued through the pandemic. For more information about this program, please email aklick@trinity.org.

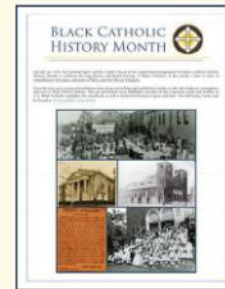

Giving Tree 2021

We will partner with 10 organizations for Giving Tree, and parishioners will have the option of making a financial donation, signing up to purchase an item, shopping the Amazon Wish List, or pulling a tag of a tree at Church. As we receive the wish lists from our partners, we will share and update the social justice ministry page and include updates in the social justice newsletter. Tree tags will be on display the week of Thanksgiving in the Church. For more information, email aklick@trinity.org.

Printed copies of the Black Catholic History Month special bulletin issue and the Annual Report can be found in the back of the church. Digital editions can be found on our website at trinity.org.

Celebrate Black Catholic History Month

On July 24, 1990, the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus of the United States designated November as Black Catholic History Month to celebrate the long history and proud heritage of Black Catholics. It also marks a time to share in remembrance the saints and souls of Africa and the African Diaspora.

Over the past year, a group of parishioners have been researching and publishing articles on the role of slavery, segregation, and race in Holy Trinity's history. This special bulletin issue highlights excerpts of this important work and profiles on U.S. Black Catholic candidates for sainthood, as well as further invitations to pray and learn. The full history series may be found at trinity.org/holy-trinity-history.

2021 Annual Report

We give thanks to God for the generosity of so many in this period of uncertainty that enabled our parish to end the year on a solid financial footing.

In the interest of transparency and accountability, we provide this summary financial information to you. Parishioners may always ask to review our audited financial statements during normal business hours. Call Thomas Favret, Managing Director, at (202) 903-2847 or email him at tfavret@trinity.org for more information.
