Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Litany of Gratitude and Farewell for Martina O'Shea as she leaves the Holy Trinity staff by the Ignatian Retreat Team

Litanies are primarily petitions introduced, articulated, or amplified through a back and forth recitation. In addition to petition, they also may include praise, repentance, thanksgiving, and other prayerful expressions particular to the occasion for which they are composed.

The substance of this particular litany draws on Ignatian spirituality and the Ignatian Retreat Team experiences as a way of offering gratitude and saying farewell to Martina. She shepherded Holy Trinity's Ignatian Retreats and Training Programs for the past eighteen years.

As it was in the beginning: God is present in all things!

As it is now and ever shall be: God is present in all things!

Glory be to God, our Maker and Keeper: Glory be!

And to Jesus, the Eternal Word made flesh, our Redeemer: Glory be!

And to the Holy Spirit, our ever-present Divine Companion: Glory be!

We pray and give thanks for your servant, Ignatius of Loyola, and for his legacy in the Spiritual Exercises: Thanks be to God.

For your servant, Martina, who has illumined, even embodied those exercises: Thanks be to God.

For her designing, organizing, teaching, mentoring, praying, listening, supervising, and counseling: Thanks be to God.

For practices nourished by her wisdom: requesting graces, discerning spirits, recognizing spiritual consolation and desolation, imagining contemplations, pondering meditations, having colloquies, praying the examen and writing prayer reviews: Thanks be to God.

For her guidance and encouragement in companioning others - to let the Creator deal directly with the creature, to remember we are God’s ongoing projects, through editing our compositions for retreats, and for caring of us as God’s beloved: Thanks be to God.

For hopes left unrealized: Lord have mercy.

For opportunities missed: Lord have mercy.

For thoughts and words not rooted in You: Lord have mercy.

As she says her farewells and prepares to enter Sabbath time, May she be sustained by our love and our gratitude.

As she lets go of ministries treasured and community cherished, May she hear Your voice echoing words to Jeremiah: For surely I know the plans I have for you ... to give you a future with hope.

As she moves from this context of sacred service and relationships, May she be assured by Jesus’ words ... remember I am with you always, to the end of the age.

And as we together look ahead to unknowable tomorrows, Hear our prayer:

That we continue the pilgrimage in both familiar and new ways, let us go forth in peace;

That we come to know Jesus better, love him more, and serve Him more faithfully, let us abide in God’s love;

With whatever fears, sorrows, joys and anticipations may be ours, let us trust in Emmanuel, God with us;

With the Lord watching over us as our paths diverge, let us follow in the footsteps of the One Lord, the Risen Christ.

We pray all these things in his name: and always for the greater Glory of God.

Amen.

THE ART OF CELEBRATING MUSICAL LITURGY

Sunday, August 11 & August 18 | 1:00PM - 3:00PM,
Faber Room

Each Sunday the people of God gather to celebrate and remember the extravagant love of God. This two-part series explores how the musical arts form an integral part of our parish’s liturgical life. Participants will learn what the Church envisions for sung liturgy and explore how it is manifested locally here at Holy Trinity. Whether you are part of the parish’s choirs, the music ministry leadership, or are a parishioner desiring to know more about the musical arts of the liturgy, you’ll find participating in this dialog worthwhile. Facilitators of the series are Tony Varas, Matthew Ogden, and Justin Connors from Holy Trinity’s Liturgy team. To reserve a place, RSVP to liturgy@trinity.org

FAREWELL TO KATIE LASKEY: AFTER THE 9:30 AND 11:30 AM MASSES ON JULY 28

Katie Laskey has served as the Coordinator of Youth Ministry at Holy Trinity for the past two years. During this time, she developed a core team of volunteers to lead the Sunday Morning Youth Group and led a summer week of service to Baltimore for high school teens and a week of local service for junior high youth. She has helped engage young people more fully in parish life through the Parish Council and liturgy. She also integrated Ignatian Spirituality and social justice into youth events such as the Ignatian Family Teach In and weekly faith sharing during Lent. Beyond youth ministry, Katie served at Holy Trinity as a sacristan and extraordinary minister of Communion and was a part of our lay preaching team. Because of her passion for a fuller participation of young people in the life of the Church, Holy Trinity has come closer to realizing the Apostolic Preference of "accompanying young people in the creation of a hope-filled future." In the past two years, we have more fully "walked by their side; glimpsed the future with them; and walked with them in order to perceive and discern where the Spirit is leading our world and our Church." One of the chaperones on the Baltimore trip shared this about Katie: "It was Katie's gentle, open and illuminating leadership in our group reflections that helped us truly gel as an inclusive and fun community. Her peaceful being and openness inspired my trust and the trust of our young people." As Katie moves to Seattle, we pray that God may bless her abundantly with the grace to continue "accompany young people in the creation of a hope-filled future."

BACKPACKS DRIVE FOR THE BROOKS

Holy Trinity parishioners Jean Johnson and Diane Lifsey volunteer in the Kids' Learning Club at Friendship Place/Brooks Housing Facility in Cleveland Park. Please sign-up to cover the grade range and the number of students that you can support. We ask that all backpacks are donated with the contents of the bag included, and we are looking for a majority gender-neutral backpacks. Backpacks must be delivered to Holy Trinity by July 31. TRAIN A JESUIT IN RWANDA AND BURUNDI

The Rwanda-Burundi Region of the Society of Jesus was created in 1999. It previously had been part of the Central African Province along with the Democratic Republic of Congo. It is the watershed tragedy of the Genocide in 1994 and regional security problems that caused the split. Today, the Region counts around 100 Jesuits, and more than 70% of them are still in formation. The average cost to train a Jesuit in Africa, per year, is $9,000, and it takes about twelve years to form one Jesuit. During and after their training, Jesuits in Rwanda and Burundi actively work in education, services to help the poor, retreat centers, healing and reconciliation ministries, HIV/AIDS ministry, Refugees Service, youth Ministries, vocation promotion, parish work, ecological and social justice programs. Please consider making a donation by scanning the QR code here:

Those who are gluten intolerant and wish to receive Holy Communion should speak with a Mass coordinator before the start of Mass. The Mass coordinator is stationed near the entrance of the Church.

PREVENTING GUN VIOLENCE

Beginning September 2024

Just Faith launched a new program on gun violence that the Social Justice ministry would like to offer in the fall if there is enough interest. Grounded in Christian faith, this program aspires to move beyond the divisive rhetoric of gun ownership versus gun control, instead inviting participants to discern solutions to the gun violence epidemic.

This program consists of eight virtual sessions, plus an immersion experience. All regular sessions include prayer, dialogue, active listening, weekly spiritual practices, and relationship-building. There is a small registration fee and you will need to purchase the book required for discussion. Space is limited to 10 participants. Sessions would begin in September and most likely be on Wednesday evenings at 7pm. Please e-mail aklick@trinity.org if you are interested.

MONTHLY COLLECTIONS CONTINUE

Snack bags, breakfast casseroles, and other breakfast items are collected every month! Donations typically decrease in summer, but the needs of those who are homeless do not. If you would like to contribute but will not be in town, please let us know and we can make other arrangements. We will collect snack bags, used to create takeaway lunches at SOME while renovations of their kitchen and dining room continue. We will also collect frozen breakfast casseroles, which will provide hot meals at The Father McKenna Center. Bagels and fruit will go to the guests of Georgetown Ministry Center. Sign up for upcoming dates: signupgenius.com/go/Community2024#/
