Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Holy Trinity Teens Inspired By Summer Service Project

By Aziza Kennedy, parishioner and rising 11th grader

My expectations for the 2024 Baltimore Summer Service Retreat were that the other volunteers and I would mainly be going to and from service sites each day, and that it would be a busy and challenging experience. This expectation was partly correct because we visited lots of service sites, one each day from morning until afternoon.

But there was a lot more to this trip than just work. It was so much more fun than I had expected. Almost every evening we would do a fun activity, such as seeing an Orioles baseball game, going to the pool, getting ice cream, and playing games together at night before lights out. It was such an enjoyable experience, and I truly connected with the other high school volunteers.

The service that we participated in was real work, but it was also fulfilling and a big part of the fun. We participated in service projects at four different sites over the course of five days, from serving food, to playing with kids, to having meaningful conversations with elders - the trip was packed with a diverse spectrum of service.

Near the end of the trip, we went to Baltimore Station, a residence for veterans who had experienced homelessness and alcoholism. We played trivia, made lunch, and then ate lunch with the residents. The most impactful part of that visit, and possibly even the entire trip, was talking one-on-one with the veterans, particularly one named Michael. He told me funny stories from his childhood, stories about different places he had stayed globally, and expressed his love for traveling along with his sadness that he would not be able to anymore. I felt that Michael and I were able to accompany one another in Christ by finding similarities with each other and having a very open conversation despite our different walks of life.

Another moment that impacted me was on our last full day of the trip. We went to Jenkins Nursing Home & Day program for seniors and for people recovering from severe injuries. I was having a great time playing bingo and word trivia with them. A particular conversation that was very meaningful to me was with a woman sitting next to me named Michelle.

Michelle told me that she had survived two brain aneurysms and after the second one, she had to learn how to speak all over again because she was not able to form full sentences or complete thoughts. Although she had gone through such traumatic events, Michelle has a very positive outlook on life and often repeated how grateful she is just to be breathing. She told me how she believes that everything in life has meaning, and that God is always guiding us down our life's path. I left Jenkins Nursing Home that day feeling truly touched by Michelle's story and her gratitude toward God despite life's challenges.

I will carry the truly inspirational conversations I had with Michael and Michelle on this trip with me for quite some time. This experience connects to our parish's mission as we, the volunteers, were able to spend quality time and find similarities to those with various backgrounds and experiences. At the end of each day, at our retreat house, the other HTC volunteers/chaperones and I would say a final Examen and reflect on our day. I really appreciated these moments we had together and that we were celebrating God's love and the gifts he had given us each day.

Although it may be hard to say that I fulfilled the third pillar of our parish's mission, "Transform Lives," I do believe that by making and serving meals to those facing food insecurity and by simply conversing with others, we were able to brighten their day. My own confidence in opening up to others has increased and the lessons I will carry with me from my conversations with Michael and Michelle have inspired me to continue to search for more opportunities to serve others. I am truly grateful to have been able to participate in the 2024 Baltimore Summer Service Retreat!

Save the date for the return of Holy Trinity's Book Discussion Group.

THE ART OF CELEBRATING MUSICAL LITURGY

Sunday, August 18 | 1:00PM - 3:00PM, Faber Room
Each Sunday the people of God gather to celebrate and remember the extravagant love of God. This two-part series explores how the musical arts form an integral part of our parish's liturgical life. Participants will learn what the Church envisions for sung liturgy and explore how it is manifested locally here at Holy Trinity. Whether you are part of the parish's choirs, the music ministry leadership, or are a parishioner desiring to know more about the musical arts of the liturgy, you'll find participating in this dialog worthwhile. Facilitators of the series are Tony Varas, Matthew Ogden, and Justin Connors from Holy Trinity's Liturgy team. To reserve a place, RSVP to liturgy@trinity.org

PREVENTING GUN VIOLENCE

Beginning September 2024

Just Faith launched a new program on gun violence that the Social Justice ministry would like to offer in the fall if there is enough interest. Grounded in Christian faith, this program aspires to move beyond the divisive rhetoric of gun ownership versus gun control, instead inviting participants to discern solutions to the gun violence epidemic.

This program consists of eight virtual sessions, plus an immersion experience. All regular sessions include prayer, dialogue, active listening, weekly spiritual practices, and relationship-building. There is a small registration fee and you will need to purchase the book required for discussion. Space is limited to 10 participants. Sessions would begin in September and most likely be on Wednesday evenings at 7pm. Please e-mail aklick@trinity.org if you are interested.

SPEAK THE TRUTH IN LOVE: AN ONLINE IGNATIAN RETREAT IN THIS ELECTION YEAR

September 22-28, 2024

Registration Deadline: Sunday, September 8, 2024

As disciples of Jesus we have a mandate to love one another. How do we live as loving disciples in the midst of so much vitriolic rhetoric in our political discourse? How do loving disciples of Jesus respond to the outcome of the November 5 election if their candidate wins or loses? This retreat engages these questions and invites us to grow in the likeness of Christ. For more information and to register, go to trinity.org/ignatian-spirituality/speak-truth-in-love-retreat

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION FOR FIRST EUCHARIST AND CONFIRMATION

Registration for sacramental preparation for First Eucharist and/or Confirmation for children and teens is ongoing. As part of the sacramental preparation, children and teens should also participate in faith formation through one of Holy Trinity's programs, at Holy Trinity School, or at another Catholic school. FAREWELL TO FATHER BEN HAWLEY, SJ

Father Ben will be leaving Holy Trinity at the end of August, as he takes a new assignment at St. Francis Xavier parish in Manhattan.

A farewell open house reception for Father Ben will be held on Saturday, September 28 from 6-8pm in the Chapel gardens.

We are also preparing a book with notes from parishioners as a remembrance of the Parish. In the back of the Church, you will find a basket with blank pages. Please feel free to take a page and write a short note to Father Ben, which will be included in the book. You can drop off notes at the Parish Office reception desk, or mail them to Tabitha Acosta, Holy Trinity Church, 3513 N St NW, Washington, DC 20007. Thank you!

Creation Care Corner

"The earth, our home, is beginning to look more and more like an immense pile of filth."
—Pope Francis

Dispose of household hazardous waste (HHW) properly. Leftover household products that can catch fire, react, or explode under certain circumstances, or that are corrosive or toxic are considered HHWs. Products such as paints, cleaners, oils, batteries, and pesticides can contain hazardous ingredients and require special care when you dispose of them. Do not dispose HHWs to landfills, or pour into drains or ditches. Save toxic chemicals and electronic materials for periodic collections. Check with your city, township or county for upcoming HHW collection events, and with your state EPA office for permanent HHW drop site locations. Unused medications can also have harmful effects, including polluting waterways and the environment if they are flushed or thrown in the trash. Some local police stations and large retail pharmacies (Meijer) take back unused meds. Don't forget that electronics are also hazardous waste. For more info: www.epa.gov/hw/household-hazardous-waste-hhw

If you would like to contribute but will not be in town, please let us know and we can make other arrangements. We will collect snack bags, used to create takeaway lunches at SOME while renovations of their kitchen and dining room continue. We will also collect frozen breakfast casseroles, which will provide hot meals at The Father McKenna Center. Bagels and fruit will go to the guests of Georgetown Ministry Center. TRAIN A JESUIT IN RWANDA AND BURUNDI

The Rwanda-Burundi Region of the Society of Jesus was created in 1999. It previously had been part of the Central African Province along with the Democratic Republic of Congo. It is the watershed tragedy of the Genocide in 1994 and regional security problems that caused the split. Today, the Region counts around 100 Jesuits, and more than 70% of them are still in formation. The average cost to train a Jesuit in Africa, per year, is $9,000, and it takes about twelve years to form one Jesuit. During and after their training, Jesuits in Rwanda and Burundi actively work in education, services to help the poor, retreat centers, healing and reconciliation ministries, HIV/AIDS ministry, Refugees Service, youth Ministries, vocation promotion, parish work, ecological and social justice programs. AUGUST IS MAKE A WILL MONTH!

August is National Make-A-Will Month, and it’s a moment to be thoughtful stewards of our family, finances, and faith. Nearly two-thirds of American adults do not have a will, and we want to empower 100% of our parish family to prayerfully plan for their future and protect their loved ones. Holy Trinity is sponsoring a free, online will-writing service to make the process free for our parishioners. Check your inbox this week for more information or get started by visiting FreeWill.com/LegacyGiving.
