The Epiphany of the Lord

A Journey to Holy Trinity and Answering the Call

*By Luis Garrido
Holy Trinity Parish Staff*

My journey to Holy Trinity began with a bike ride—an adventure filled with unexpected challenges. According to Google Maps, it was supposed to be an hour-and-a-half ride. Without my own bike, I relied on Capital Bikeshare, requiring long and unexpected detours to swap bikes every 45 minutes to stay within the time limit. What started as a straightforward trip turned into a 20-mile, four-hour trek. Exhausted and barely able to walk, I finally arrived at Holy Trinity Church.

It was there, in my moment of weariness, that I found something greater—my call. It was written plainly in the bulletin that week, nestled between pages 6 and 7: “Database Manager Needed.” Coming from the consulting world of corporate America as a software developer and a leader in cloud and digital infrastructure, I knew this was my moment to devote my skills to the mission of supporting the institution that carries my faith.

Before my career in technology, I was trained as a professional ballet and contemporary dancer from the age of eight, eventually becoming a Principal Dancer. This background instilled in me a deep sense of devotion and discipline—qualities that continue to guide me in my faith and service.

I’ve been a part of the Holy Trinity family for just over a year. My introduction came through the Young Adult Community (YAC), and soon after, I discovered the magic of the entire parish. Having lived here for three years, I longed for a community that could feel like home—and I found that at Holy Trinity.

Growing up in Cuba, a country with a rich Catholic heritage, I was deeply inspired by figures like Fray Bartolomé de las Casas, one of the earliest advocates for abolition in the Americas, and Fr. Félix Varela y Morales, who was exiled for his fight for social justice. Their legacy of faith, service, and commitment to justice aligns closely with the values I've found at Holy Trinity, where the call to action and compassion continues to shape my understanding of service.

Finding Holy Trinity was a milestone—a community I can genuinely call familia. It brought me back to the warmth I felt at the Siervas de María Church on 23rd and F Street in Havana, where I received the gift of the Holy Spirit for the first time.

Now, a new journey begins! As the latest addition to the Advancement and Stewardship team, I am energized and honored to help carry forward the cultural and spiritual history of this incredible institution. We plan to create a more straightforward system to help our parishioners with their continuous support of Holy Trinity. Additionally, we aim to fortify our database to reduce any possible issues we may face in the future. Thank you, Holy Trinity, for this opportunity. "The show is about to begin!"

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

During the holiday season, many of us look forward to gatherings and traditions. However, for those who have lost a loved one, this time of year can bring feelings of grief and longing. The "empty chair" at the table serves as a poignant reminder of their absence.

Our bereavement ministry is here to help you through this time. Our faith reminds us of hope, healing, and the promise of eternal life. May you find peace in the memories of the deceased and strength in the love that surrounds you.

On Saturday, January 11 you are invited to join us at 10:00 a.m. in McKenna Hall for a grief support group "Navigating grief during the New Year".

We will also begin a six consecutive week grief support group on Saturday, February 1 through March 8.

These sessions will provide a safe and confidential place for sharing struggles with grief. It will provide patterns in the grieving experience and ideas for coping.

Should you be unable to attend these dates but are interested in participating at a different time or perhaps on Zoom, please let us know.

For more information and/or to register, please e-mail bereavementministry@trinity.org or call 202-903-2808.
