Ephphetha: That Is, Be Opened

by Anne Koester

Christian Initiation of Adults Coordinator

On Holy Saturday morning, we will celebrate the "preparation rites" with our Elect, who will be baptized that night at the Easter Vigil. There are two such preparation rites pulled forward from earlier centuries.

First, in the ancient Church, Christians shared the Creed with those seeking baptism shortly before their initiation into the Church. On Holy Saturday morning, those to be baptized recited the Creed, symbolically making it their own as they prepared to become members of the Body of Christ.

Second, by the 7th century, there is also evidence of a ritual called the ephphetha, an Aramaic word that means "be opened." (Aramaic was one of the Semitic languages at the time of Jesus; it was closely related to Hebrew.)

Mark 7:31-37 provides the scriptural foundation for this rite. In this passage, people bring a deaf man with a speech impediment to Jesus. Jesus puts his fingers in the man's ears and touches his tongue, and says, "ephphetha." The man is able to hear and speak plainly. Christians found this account compelling and incorporated it into pre-baptismal rituals (which also included an anointing with the oil of exorcism -- today called the oil of catechumens).

The contemporary Church has preserved this ephphetha ritual. For the Elect, it is celebrated prior to baptism on Holy Saturday morning. The ears and lips of the Elect will be touched, as these words are prayed: "Ephphetha: that is, be opened, that you may profess the faith you hear, to the praise and glory of God."

All are welcome to join us in the Church on Holy Saturday at 9:00 a.m. for Morning Prayer and the Preparation Rites with the Elect (those to be baptized at the Easter Vigil)

STRATEGIES FOR SURVIVAL AND FINDING WORK AFTER JOB LOSS

Wednesdays | 4:15 PM, Parish Center Library
Please join us for weekly sessions for those who have lost their jobs, continuing through the end of May.

Sessions will take place in person in the Parish Center library from 4:15 - 5:15 pm, and will be facilitated by Marie Raber, MSW, PhD, and other volunteers from our parish.

You are warmly invited to stay for 5:30 pm Mass each week in the chapel following these sessions. Please register ahead of time at trinity.org/adult-faith-formation. For more information, please e-mail Brian Flanagan at bflanagan@trinity.org. Thank you.

Many parishioners know well the story of the cross we use for veneration on Good Friday. For those who do not, the cross was lovingly made from ceiling beams removed during restoration of our worship spaces. The cross has been carried and held for veneration by generations of our parishioners and is a rich part of our history. Would you consider joining in our parish tradition of adoration of this Holy Cross on Good Friday, April 18 at 8:00 pm?

Coffee & Donuts

Please visit McKenna Hall for coffee and donuts following the 9:00AM and 11:30AM Masses.

Venmo & PayPal now accepted for donations.
Thank you!

Thanks to all the volunteers who generously give of their time to bring this important ministry to the parish.
