

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

May 11, 2025

Fourth Sunday of Easter

The Youth Are Called To Holiness

*by Rudy Dehaney,
Holy Trinity Coordinator Of Youth Ministry*

On April 27, 39 High School and 8th grade students gathered in the Neale Room for an annual joint 8th grade/ High School youth group meeting. This year, it was not only an opportunity for the 8th graders to get a taste of what a youth group would be like for them in the years to come, it was also an opportunity to gather during the Jubilee of Teenagers that took place in Rome April 26-27.

Originally, this Jubilee year celebration was centered around the canonization of Bl. Carlo Acutis – the first Millennial Saint – and it ended up focusing on the life of Pope Francis. While the pure focus of the weekend changed, it did allow many young people who were already traveling to Rome to be present at this historic time, and I do not think Pope Francis would have it any other way.

Always an advocate for young people, Pope Francis was vocal on how he viewed young people as he talked about extensively on in his exhortation, Christus Vivit (“Christ is Alive”). Pope Francis believed young people are to be co-responsible in ministry and protagonists in their own journey. As a Church, we all need young people engaged, as they are essential to keep us young, vitalized, and pure. Pope Francis also often emphasized, as in Gaudete et

Exsultate (“Rejoice and Be Glad”), that we are all called to holiness, even the young.

This path to holiness can often be difficult and presents its own unique set of challenges and struggles. My own path includes many struggles, including the time as a youth into college. At one point, I no longer had faith and would attend church out of obligation. I just went through the motions of going without feeling anything. Little did I know, even that place of desolation, the Holy Spirit was still working in me and in those around me.

Not too long afterward through a period of illness, I would remember how my church community was there for me and in my heart. I began to fully understand that this is how Christ lives in people, and I wanted to be like them in living for Christ. In this dark time, I decided to turn to my faith and dedicate myself to being not only a person who just believed, but a disciple who would work for others who were also in need. The area that called me the most was ministering to young people.

My journey into youth ministry was not a solitary one. There were people in my life and my parish who accompanied me along the way. Sometimes that included providing wisdom, extending the invitation to be a part of ministries, pushing me forward or just simply being there to listen, learn, and enjoy each other's company. All had a place in my life to help get me where I am today.

We all must look at how we can accompany young people on their path to holiness. Many believe and fear that they are not equipped to accompany young people but the main skill we all need is the ability to listen: to their concerns, worries, expectations, joys, and accomplishments and be in relationship with them. While we may need help in being better listeners, we all have the ability to listen and we must use it to build relationships needed in a spirit-filled community.

I extend the invitation to all adults (and even other young people!) to become relational ministers: people who are actively able to listen to our young people inside and outside of the Church walls. Go to where they are and practice synodality with our youngest members. We are forming a cohort that will regularly meet to talk about and work on skills to be better listeners. We need more people to be "next-door Saints" and help accompany our young people to know that they, too, can be like Bl. Carlo Acutis and can accomplish great things.

PRAYER FOR THE ELECTION OF A NEW POPE

Pope Francis' funeral on Saturday, April 26 marked the beginning of the Novemdiales, an ancient tradition of nine days of mourning. This period ended on Sunday, May 4.

After the conclusion of the Novemdiales, the College of Cardinals were set to meet in the Conclave to select the new Pope, beginning on Wednesday, May 7.

We offer this prayer for the election of a new Pope:

O God, eternal shepherd,
Who governs your flock with unfailing care,
Grant in your boundless fatherly love
A pastor for your Church
Who will please you by his holiness
And to us show watchful care.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

OUR SHARED BAPTISM, SYNODALITY, AND ECUMENICAL MOMENTUM

Sunday, May 11 | 10:15 AM, St. Ignatius Chapel

Monday, May 12 | 7:00 PM, Zoom

One clear message of the Synod on Synodality's Final Document is that "the journey of synodality is and must be ecumenical, just as the ecumenical journey is synodal."

Theologian and parishioner Dr. John Borelli will lead us in conversation on how the one baptism we share with other Christians despite our divisions calls us, in our implementation of Synod lead, to an increase in ecumenical zeal.

You can register for the Zoom link for May 12 at trinity.org/adult-faith-formation

YAC MASS AND CAFE

Sunday, May 11 | 7:15 PM, Chapel followed by McKenna

The Young Adult Community will hold its monthly Mass and Cafe on Sunday, May 11 at 7:15pm in St. Ignatius Chapel. All those in their 20s and 30's are invited to attend and join the potluck in McKenna Hall afterwards. ## PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL ELECTIONS

Parishioners will elect four members to the Holy Trinity Parish Council (PPC) this year. Self-nomination forms are now available at trinity.org/parish-pastoral-council, and are due no later than May 23. Sunday, May 18 | 10:30 AM, Epiphany Catholic church in Georgetown

Our friends at Epiphany Church invite us to join them in a celebration to thank the founding fathers and mothers for the place of worship they built – a place to experience the beauty of holiness. As we reflect on the past, celebrate the present and look forward to the future – let us help recognize their place in the history of our beloved Church. The Solemn Centenary Mass will be celebrated by His Excellency, Most Reverend Roy Campbell, on Sunday, May 18, 2025 at 10:30 AM. (Fr. Kevin is a concelebrant too!)

GATEWAY TO DISCIPLESHIP: THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Sunday, May 18 | 10:15 AM, Trinity Hall

Monday, May 19 | 7:00 PM, via Zoom

Join us for a moderated conversation with Tony Varas, Pastoral Associate for Liturgy on the sacrament of baptism. He will discuss how we understand the sacrament of baptism as the starting point for our life as disciples in the church and in the world, and how the liturgical forms of the sacrament teach us who we are called to be as the Christian faithful. You can register for childcare for the May 18 session, or register for the Zoom link for May 19, at trinity.org/adult-faith-formation

10TH ANNIVERSARY OF LAUDATO SI'

May marks the 10th anniversary of Pope Francis' Laudato Si', the groundbreaking encyclical on care for our common home. The Green Team wanted to point out just a few of the ways you are helping here at Holy Trinity -

- The water refill station in McKenna shows that you have avoided using 7,693 single-use plastic bottles.
- Our latest compost report notes that our efforts have saved 14 tons of waste from going to the landfill.
- The solar panels installed on the Upper and Lower School roofs are online, and designed to provide over 1,100 kWh/kW of renewable power each year.

We have more work to do, but thank you for all of our efforts and your commitment to caring for our common home!

ACCOMPANYING RETURNING CITIZENS*May 19 & June 2

Through the Frederick Douglass Project, parishioners are invited to visit the DC Jail in person for a conversation with the incarcerated men and women or to participate virtually with incarcerated men at the Bent Correctional Facility in Colorado.

We will visit in person on May 19 from 1-3:30pm and virtually with Bent Correctional on June 2 from 6-8pm. To sign up for one or both of these gatherings, please scan the QR code at right and indicate you are with Holy Trinity. If you would like to join the email list for updates on this work, please e-mail aklick@trinity.org.

ENCUENTRO PROJECT - FALL BORDER TRIP

The Encuentro Project, rooted in the tradition of Faith that does Justice, offers participants a faith-based, multi-faceted immersion program in the El Paso-Ciudad Juarez border region to experience a deeper understanding of the complex migration reality and of Catholic social teaching. We will be hosting an information session in May. Please register for more information about the immersion experience by scanning the QR code at right:

KEEPING OUR PARISH RECORDS UPDATED

We are grateful to all the parishioners who have responded to our requests to verify their household information. With your help, we've now verified and corrected records for over 1,500 family households and added more than 200 new or returning households to our database. This effort ensures we are better able to serve our parish community and plan responsibly for the future.

The next round of e-mails is being sent this week. When you receive our e-mail, please review your information and provide any necessary corrections. Your prompt response will help us maintain accurate records and serve our parish community more effectively. If you have any questions, please e-mail Christopher cdake@trinity.org or Luis lgarrido@trinity.org, or call 202-903-2837. Thank you!

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY SUPPORT GROUPS

The Bereavement Ministry will hold a summer weekly general loss group to begin on Saturday, June 7 from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. While the experience of grief is profoundly personal, navigating the loss with others is often a source of consolation for the bereaved.

Our drop-in grief support group will be held on Saturday, May 31 and June 28 from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. These groups offer a flexible format where participants can attend as needed.

These faith-based grief support groups can provide a place of rest, community and comfort during a time of loss. Registration is strongly encouraged. Please visit trinity.org/bereavement, or contact Lisa Colaanni at bereavementministry@trinity.org.
