Holy Trinity School: Growing People For Others

by Mawersia Mekonen, Holy Trinity School Development Associate

Imagine arriving at Holy Trinity School as a Pre-K student. You are meeting your teacher, finding your classroom, learning where everything goes, and getting to know a whole new group of people. Then, within the first few days, something else happens: you get sorted into your House.

You might be thinking, “Wait, like Harry Potter?” Well, sort of. There is no talking Sorting Hat at HTS; however, there IS a sorting gumball machine. It is filled with different colored rubber balls, each of which belongs to one of six houses. You turn the handle, get your ball, and find your House.

Then comes the best part: students and teachers from your House jump up and erupt in cheers, welcoming their newest member. As a brand-new PreK student, you may not know exactly what House life means yet, but you quickly learn one thing: there is a place for you here.

At HTS, every student from PreK through 8th grade gets sorted into a House, along with teachers and staff. Students stay in their Houses throughout their years at HTS, building friendships and connections across grade levels.

Throughout the year, students earn House points for showing school spirit, demonstrating personal growth, and most importantly, caring for others. Points may be awarded for helping a classmate, helping a faculty member, welcoming a new student, showing kindness, or stepping up to serve their school community. Through these everyday acts, the House System helps students grow into people for others.

The House System is just one glimpse of Jesuit tradition of cura personalis, or care for the whole person. Principal Katy

Williams describes HTS as “a place where each child is really seen and loved, and each family can feel heard.” Students are encouraged to grow in knowledge, kindness, confidence, courage, and responsibility for others.

When thinking about what it means to care for the whole person, another part of the HTS story comes into focus: making sure families have the opportunity to be here. Making that experience accessible to families is an important part of the school’s mission. Today, approximately 20% of HTS students receive financial aid. Since Principal Williams started in her role 3 years ago, the number of families applying for financial aid has increased by 92%.

For students who receive that support, financial aid is not simply a number on a page. It is a classroom, a teacher, a House, a friendship, a basketball game, a favorite tradition, and all the little moments that make up being an HTS student. It is also access to a community that leaves a lasting impact. As fourth-grade teacher Georgia Chamberlain explains, “Students are taught to care for one another, but also recognize the ways they can make a positive impact in the lives of their neighbors.”

Creating that experience requires caring teachers and staff, meaningful programs, strong resources, and ability to know students as individuals. And that is where the Holy Trinity School Annual Fund comes in.

Like many Catholic and independent schools, HTS faces an approximately $4,000 gap between what families pay in tuition and the actual cost of educating each student. Donations to the Annual Fund help bridge that gap and support the school’s overall operating expenses.

Your participation is key to funding the people and programs that make the HTS experience possible. It helps sustain the many things students and families rely on every day while giving the school flexibility to respond to emerging needs and opportunities.

The Annual Fund is one of the most important ways supporters invest in Holy Trinity School. If you believe in what HTS is giving its students, we invite you to be part of that work by scanning the QR code at right or by visiting btsdc.org/annual-fund. Your support helps HTS continue helping young people grow into thoughtful, compassionate, and courageous People for Others.

Thank you!

THANK YOU FROM THE IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY PROJECT RETREAT!

Recently, women in recovery from homelessness and addiction gathered with members of the Ignatian Spirituality Project DC Women's team for a few days of retreat interweaving elements of the 12 steps with the spirituality of St. Ignatius. The women would like to convey their gratitude to Holy Trinity parishioners who knit the lovely prayer shawls, who provided stuffed animals for comfort, and who wrote letters of support. The gift of your time, effort, and prayers lets the participants in this ministry know in a concrete way that they are surrounded by community. Thank you.
