Solemnity of All Saints

40 Years of Faithful Care: Holy Trinity Celebrates SOAR!

by Christopher Dake,
Director of Advancement and Stewardship

On this Solemnity of All Saints, we give thanks for the holy men and women who have gone before us. Many of us also know living examples: the Sisters who taught us to read, the Brothers who mentored us, the Priests who baptized our children and sat with our parents at the end of life. This year, one remarkable organization marks four decades of caring for them in return.

How It Began. In May 1986, Wall Street Journal reporter John Fialka published a front-page story on a question that had stayed with him: what had become of the Sisters who taught him in Catholic school? The answer was sobering. Religious communities were aging quickly, vocations had declined, and many Sisters, Brothers and Priests had served for decades on little or no pay, with no provision for retirement. Meanwhile, health care costs were climbing.

Readers responded at once. Fialka joined forces with Frank Butler of FADICA (Foundations and Donors Interested in Catholic Activities), who had already been sounding the alarm about religious retirement, and the two gathered supporters at Trinity College here in Washington. That meeting marked the founding of SOAR! (Support Our Aging Religious). Frank Butler is one of our own, a Holy Trinity parishioner whose vision helped launch forty years of care. Many in our parish have followed his lead as donors, volunteers, and friends.

Forty Years Later. The mission of SOAR! remains clear: to raise funds and provide grants so that aging religious can live safely and with dignity in the communities they call home.

The need has only grown. Today, about 70 percent of religious communities in the United States have a median age of 70 or older, and religious over 70 outnumber those under 70 by nearly three to one. SOAR! answers with practical help.

Grants help in practical, impactful ways: a hospital bed, a stairlift, an automatic door, an accessible van, a renovated bathroom, or a generator for when the power fails. These are not luxuries. They are what allow an elderly Sister to remain at home and continue to be part of their community. The Grants support communities across the United States, including those in our area. Recent grants have supported the Josephite Fathers here in the District, the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity in Silver Spring, the Sisters Servants of the Immaculate Heart in Baltimore, and the Benedictine Sisters of Virginia in Bristow. Now, we serve congregations that have made a difference in our lives and continue to do so.

Those Who Lead. What stands out about SOAR! is its steadiness in leadership, from Frank Butler's first gathering in 1986 to Sister Kathleen Lunsmann, IHM, who led the organization from 2010 to 2026, and now to Kristen R. Wise, the current president, who has been part of the SOAR! mission since 2015. So many donors have given faithfully, year after year, for decades. It is the same quiet, lifelong commitment we see in the religious themselves, who gave their lives to teaching, nursing, and serving the poor without expecting anything in return.

It is also the kind of commitment that makes Holy Trinity what it is. We are a parish that cares for one another and supports others' good work. Standing with SOAR! is a natural expression of who we are.

Join the Celebration. SOAR! will mark its 40th anniversary at the Awards Gala this Friday, November 6, at the Embassy of Italy. The evening will honor:

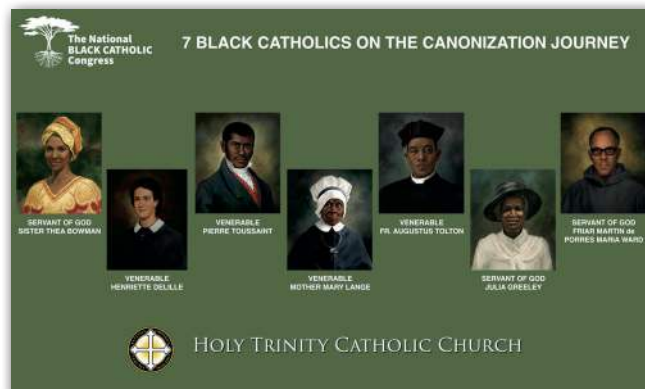

- The Catholic Health Association of the United States, Saint Katharine Drexel Award
- Mary Lynn and Deacon Jim Shanahan, Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Award
- Kerrie Wilson, Father Bob Brown, OSFS Good Samaritan Award

The reception begins at 6:30 pm, with dinner at 7:30 pm. Tickets and sponsorships are available at soar-usa.org/dcregister-2026.

How You Can Help. Whether or not you can attend on Friday, there are simple ways to be part of this anniversary:

- Give online at www.soar-usa.org/40
- Pray for the aging Sisters, Brothers, and Priests who shaped our faith
- Thank a religious who made a difference in your life

On this day honoring All Saints, let us also honor those who spent their lives accompanying us, and make sure they are cared for with the same love they gave us.
