Finding Grace in Our Work

by Jacqueline Pascal,
Parish Pastoral Council Vice President

In the spirit of the presupposition, I am going to assume that most members of our parish do not closely follow the goings-on of the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) because they trust that the PPC is at work in the parish and not because they have never heard of us. This weekend, I want to provide a little insight into our mission and work through a reflection on our recent annual Fall PPC Retreat.

The main objective of the PPC is to promote pastoral activity and stewardship of the Parish and specifically to advise and assist our Pastor in exercising his leadership through planning, setting goals, coordination, motivation, support, and evaluation.

The purpose of our Fall Retreat was to take a morning away and meet with our PPC Committees and Councils to reflect on the past year and plan for the coming year. Every year, committee leadership changes, and members come and go. This year we hosted 25 incoming and returning committee members. In addition to a few administrative items, we heavily focused on prayer, synodality, and Ignatian Spirituality – three items that the PPC has been focusing more on in recent years.

To that end, as part of our collaborative process through the day, we infused reflective prayer such the Examen into our activities. We asked our attendees to pray individually and share as they were willing to foster a sense of togetherness with the Holy Spirit. We kicked off with prayer and an introduction to Ignatian Spirituality by Catherine Heinhold, Holy Trinity's Pastoral Associate for Ignatian Spirituality and Prayer. This really set the tone for a day of reflection and discussion with the Holy Spirit as an attendee.

Next, we provided an update on the PPC's infusion of synodality into our proceedings, as well as an invitation for our committees to include more synodality into their monthly meetings, with an example of what that might look like in practice. Our push for synodality has been championed by PPC member Frank Butler, who paired his remarks with an activity for participants.

After a quick coffee refresher, Frank also gave some wonderful remarks on Pope Leo's book Freedom Under Grace and the natural intersections between Pope Leo's Augustinian background and our Parish's Jesuit identity. We paired these remarks with an Examen around finding joy and meaning in the consolations and desolations of committee and parish life.

We rounded out our day with a look to the future. We discussed our Tithe process, which is led by our Social Justice Ministry and provides funding to many organizations with missions aligning to Holy Trinity's. We also heard about the Capital and Annual Campaigns, with a focus on setting Holy Trinity up to carry our mission forward for years to come.

The outcome of the retreat is always more than the sum of its parts. While our main purpose was to provide yearly updates and meet new committee leadership, we also found fellowship in dialogue and collaboration. I personally found joy in the conversations and consolations of a morning spent with fellow Parishioners over coffee and lunch. One morning away from the distractions of work and daily life really set me up for a strong year with the PPC on behalf of the Parish!

If you have ever wondered about the activities and mission of your Parish Pastoral Council, we invite you to join one of the monthly meetings. This month, we are meeting Wednesday, November 18, 2026 at 7:00 in person in McKenna Hall and on Zoom.

Celebrate Economic Justice for All at 40
Sunday, November 15 | 10:15 AM, Trinity Hall
On the 10th annual World Day of the Poor, all are invited to join a conversation to celebrate the 40th anniversary of Economic Justice for All, a landmark social teaching document from the Catholic Bishops of the United States. We will also be joined by Georgetown's Dr. Joseph McCartin, Founding Director of the Kalmanovitz Initiative for Labor & the Working Poor. Pope Leo recently taught that "Dignified work is not merely about productivity, but also participation in God's creation. A just economy is not judged on profit alone, but on inclusive growth and protection for the most vulnerable." (Magnifica Humanitas, No. 158). Join us to reflect on the role that U.S. Catholics have played in the church's developing teaching on economic life, and how this teaching is calling to us today. Questions? Contact Ian Mitchell, Coordinator of Adult Faith Formation, at imitchell@trinity.org.
